

HELL SURVIVORS 2006 TRILOGY

DraXxuS

2006 Trilogy of Paintball is sponsored by VForce Vision and DraXxuS

Michigan's Hell Survivors, one of the most respected and longest standing paintball game fields in the industry, will once again host their World-famous Trilogy of big games and scenario events throughout the 2006 season, sponsored by VForce Vision and ProcapsPaintball! The triumvirate of games for 2006 will encompass a total of six thrilling days of Paintball excitement at the Pinckney, Michigan field just west of Detroit. The Trilogy comprises the legendary Michigan Monster Game, the Tippmann World Challenge, and the Global Conquest scenario game. With pre-registration already running stronger than ever and interest at all-time highs, players are encouraged to sign up early to avoid the rush.

One of the original paintball playing fields in the game, Hell Survivors has operated a fun and friendly facility for over twenty years, introducing countless numbers of new players to the sport. The Michigan Monster Game and Tippmann World Challenge have been must-attend events for years, drawing thousands of players.

Presented by Exotic Sportz and sponsored by Procaps and VForce Vision Systems, this year's Trilogy of Paintball is set to be the greatest yet.

VForce Vision manufactures the industry-leading PROfiler", Vantage", Morph", Shield" and Armor" lines of paintball masks, providing players with the utmost in protection, comfort, clear vision and anti-fog performance. VForce is the choice of champions like Baltimore Trauma, Russian Legion and the Philadelphia All Americans, as well as traveling scenario and big game teams like the Mayberry Marauders, Pub Crawling, Special Ops Factory Team and many more.

Distributed by the Procaps Direct network of warehouses across the USA, Canada and the world, VForce envisions a day when all players can clearly see the way to the top.
